

Humanities

Weather and Climate

- Build an understanding of different climates in relation to the equator and how people survive in extreme climates.

RE

- Understand there are a range of different communities that we belong too.

Expressive Arts

- Water and rain pictures
- Light and shadow, still life drawing

SPAG/Spellings

- Spell prefixes and suffixes.
- Spell homophones correctly.
- Revisiting nouns, verbs, adjectives and adverbs.
- Learning to use a dictionary.
- Learning to spell words which are often misspelt.
- Proof reading and editing pupils' work writing.

Maths

- Multiplication and division.
- Understanding the relationship between multiplication and division.
- Practical resources to help develop understanding further.
- Times tables.

Year 3 Autumn 2 Weather and Climate

Outdoor Learning

- Forest School
- Recording and making weather instruments.

English

- The Rhythm of the Rain by Grahame Baker-Smith
- Hortense and the shadow by Natalia and Lauren O'Hara
- Coming home by Michael Morpurgo

PSHE

- Celebrating difference
- Well-being

STEM

- Science: Light and shadows
- Understanding how shadows are formed and that some objects reflect light.
- Sun safety– To know how we can stay safe in the sun.

PE

- Daily Mile
- Throwing and catching skills in rugby.

Well-being

Community

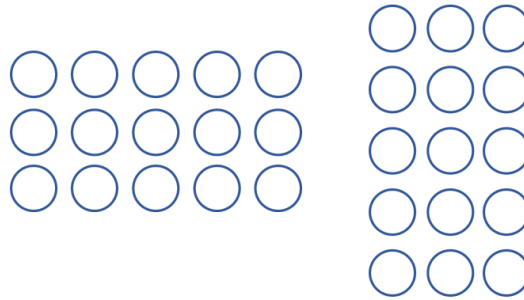

Wider Life Opportunities

Outdoor Learning

Maths

- Formal written multiplication and division calculations.
- Understanding that division and multiplication are inter-linked (inverse operations).
- Looking in greater depth at the 3 and 4 times tables.

Draw an array to represent 5×3

Key Dates

- P.E. will continue to be every Monday. Children should arrive in their P.E. kit for the whole day.
- End of autumn term will be Friday the 18th December.

English

- Reading Rhythm of the Rain, Hortense and the Shadow and Coming Home.
- Study the choice of vocabulary and grammar that the author uses to make pupils' aware of how they can make their writing more exciting.
- Guided Reading will be based on our class books. Skills will include retrieving information, inference, understanding new vocabulary, prediction and summarising.
- An introduction to the key features of different styles of writing.

Key Vocabulary

- Weather, temperature, climate, precipitation, evaporation, rain, snow, wind, fog, hurricane, tornado, thermometer, compass, transparent, opaque, reflect, reflection, atmosphere,

Well-being

Community

Wider Life Opportunities

Outdoor Learning